Dark corners and whispered secrets.
Furtive glances and meaningful silences. Make no mistake - discretion has its place. Over-reliance on secrecy, however, has left us inheriting problem, after problem, after problem.

Thus we are left with the puzzle of the Knowledge, the Sound and the Light. Were more information left to us, we might go into this with our eyes open. For now, all we can do is follow the trail, which leads us to Malta with the Spring thaws. There, we are told, is a vault which I must open.

If I must walk this path in the dark, then I would appreciate other eyes to see what I may miss. Come with me to Malta, that we might move one step closer to unraveling this snarl.
